1	15 16 mm Kodacrome motion picture films (listed below) produced by the Office of Inter-American Affairs and its successor (AID predecessor agencies), 1945-47, for distribution in Latin America. The films are in possession of NARS audiovisual archives Division and have been determined to have neither sufficient evidential value in documenting this country's activities in foreign countries nor informational value to historians or other researchers to warrant permanent preservation. Further, since information contained in the films is out of date, they are of no value to current or future AID activities. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1.
